The citizen-soldiers who fought for the Confederacy personified the best qualities of America. The preservation of liberty and freedom was the motivating factor in the South’s decision to fight the Second American Revolution. The tenacity with which Confederate soldiers fought underscored their belief in the rights guaranteed by the Constitution. These attributes are the underpinning of our democratic society and represent the foundation on which this nation was built.

Today, the SCV is preserving the history and legacy of these heroes so that future generations can understand the motives that animated the Southern Cause.

The SCV is the direct heir of the United Confederate Veterans, and the oldest hereditary organization for male descendants of Confederate soldiers. Organized at Richmond, Virginia in 1896, the SCV continues to serve as a historical, patriotic, and non-political organization dedicated to ensuring that a true history of the 1861-1865 period is preserved.

Membership is open to all male descendants of any veteran who served honorably in the Confederate armed forces.
From the Army Commander

Compatriots,

Happy New Year to all of you!

I am glad to see 2021 end and I hope things will be brighter in 2022. We still have COVID hanging around, Masks and Mandates; Some things may never change. The cost of a burger is up 35% and some items you will not even find to purchase. In the Confederate world we still have monuments being threatened, camps told they can’t meet in a location anymore and attendance at meetings are down. Not necessarily membership, but attendance in general. Whether it is an event or a camp meeting it has been a struggle to get people to join in. That is one thing we can easily try to rectify. We have $400 smart phones, are we using them to call our members who have been absent from several meetings in a row? Many camps use reminders for their members to let them know about upcoming meetings. Some take the old school approach to personally make a call. Whatever works is the option to use.

I had the pleasure in October to attend the Indiana Division Reunion in Bluffton. I was glad to be there in person this year instead of the hospital as was the case last year. The new Division Commander Del Felder is trying to improve the Division by using new ideas and bringing back tried ideas that worked in the past. On page 16 there are photos from the Indiana Division Reunion.

Spring is around the corner. Now is the time to start planning for camp activities. We have plenty of things going on in the AoT that you can take advantage of. There are countless Lee/Jackson banquets and celebrations across the Army. The S.D. Lee Institute will be held in Biloxi, Mississippi on February 18-19. Details are on page 6. Flag Day will be observed March 5th across the Confederation. It is time for everyone to come out of their bunker and reengage with their SCV brothers.

Carl Jones is on the committee along with William Gladdis of North Carolina, Executive Director Adam Southern, Lt. CiC Jason Boshers and CiC Larry McCluney. We have some ideas that we will present to the GEC on March 5th for approval and we hope to have phase 1 underway shortly thereafter.

I will leave the fundraising efforts to the Museum Fundraising Committee. There will be some new ideas discussed to pay for the museum. I hope you will support them. CiC McCluney’s article in the current issue of the Confederate Veteran is a good place to start. The delegates at the 2009 reunion in Hot Springs voted to build a museum to tell our story. It was started in 2017 and is now in our possession. We need the members help to pay off the note.

My last portion of this article is to tell you that I have enjoyed my time as Army Commander. I was elected in 2020 in Florida and I have visited all of the Divisions except Illinois. Our Divisions are working hard. We have men who sincerely believe in growing and following the Charge. Like everyone else from time to time discouragement settles in. I went through a brief period where I wondered if this position was for me. I had an incident that happened that answered that question for me. So at this time I am announcing that I am committed to stand for the position of Army Commander for a second term. I hope you will support me in my bid for reelection. I think the next two years will be critical for what we as Southerners believe in and if we are going to stop or slow down the attempts from our detractors, I think the “high tide” is quickly approaching. I will see you in July at the National Reunion in Georgia or sooner.

For the Cause,

Jimmy Hill

General Forrest 200 Society

On July 13, 1821 Nathan Bedford Forrest was born in Chapel Hill Tennessee. Forrest would become one of the greatest self-made men in the South, plantation owner, businessman and most importantly one of the most feared Generals during the War Between the States. His legacy to this day is larger than any other Tennessean in all the history of the state of Tennessee. There are more monuments, memorials, streets named and historical markers for General Forrest than any other Tennessean. Honorable W. L. H. Collier, Commander Forrest’s Calvary Corps wrote on December 19th 1927: “Every Confederate soldier who did his duty measured up to the highest standard of a man. But no body of soldiers in all history possessed more patriotism or exhibited more courage and determination to do or die for their country than the followers of Nathan Bedford Forrest.”

To this day Forrest is still honored and remembered around the world because of his “Charge em’ Both Ways” and “Be there First with the Most” tactics. A natural born warrior and leader Ole Bedford was known for many battles including his famous Murfreesboro raid on July 13, 1862 which was his 41st birthday, where he defeated the Yankees and liberated the town from Union occupation. His warning was: “I must demand an unconditional surrender of your force as prisoners of war, or I will have every man put to the sword”.

This year is the 200th birthday of General Forrest and the SCV Tennessee Division is offering a limited number of memberships in the General Forrest 200 Society which is for those that revere the great General Forrest. Each member will receive a limited edition Challenge coin, patch, lapel pin (which is pictured above), membership certificate and recognition in the Forrest’s Escort magazine. Money raised will go to the Forrest Boyhood Home Fund for the events building. Individual, Camp and group memberships are welcomed. Join the General Forrest 200 Society today and ride with Forrest!

Help Georgia’s Fight For Their Monuments

The Georgia Division is involved in multiple legal cases trying to preserve the monuments where they are currently located or to return them to their original location. The monument takedown effort in Georgia is stronger than any other place except Virginia. If you as an individual, a Camp or a Division can help financially it would be greatly appreciated. Some of the cases they are involved in will set precedents that can be used by other states when applicable. They have spent more than $150,000 of Division funds plus other monies donated to stop the desecration by the local or county municipalities. All donations sent regardless of size is appreciated.
