They don't know what they don't know.

The newcomers to the country and (post WWII), interloping outsiders and newcomers to Nashville and the South have no idea about truthful history. They have no idea who they slander in their arrogant ignorance. Case in point is Confederate veteran, Parthenon architect and US war hero, William Crawford Smith. Observe:

Compatriots of the Tennessee Division,

As summer winds down, the heat has been brutal and I for one am ready for the fall weather. I hope that each of you and your Camps are doing well and have a lot of plans for the next few months. There are several events coming up this fall as well into the winter. If you can get in the local Christmas parade in your area, now is the time to look at getting registered.

The attacks on our Confederate Heritage are still going on in Tennessee as well as across the South. The main thing to remember is to stay in contact with your local officials when you hear about a heritage violation. We have had an incident in Franklin where the city pulled up posts that had been placed at the locations where all of the Confederate Generals were killed with their names on them. These had been in place since the 1990's, a complaint has been filled by the Tennessee Division with the Tennessee Historical Commission about the removal of the posts. The city of Franklin called them wooden stakes in an effort to justify what they have done. One was even located on private property. The push for the "fuller story" which will place four interpretive markers around the Franklin Confederate Monument has slowed but is still a threat.

The Confederate Monument in Nashville at Centennial Park was vandalized and the Metro Parks Commission met to decide what they are going to do. They have decided that they will leave the monument in its current location and place a contextual marker at the monument. Hopefully this will set a precedent with any other local governments' thoughts on moving a monument. What we have to be ready to do is get on the committee that will develop the contextual marker.

At the Tennessee state capitol there are still some that want to have the Forrest bust removed and do away with the Forrest day proclamation. With the next legislative session, you can bet that our SCV license plates will be attacked just as they have the past few years. Again, stay in touch with your local elected officials and let them know we want our Confederate heritage to be left alone and respected. We have done a good job in calling, emailing and writing letters, keep up the good work and when you get notified to make contacts' do it immediately!

Promote our SCV license plates as often as you can, we still have close to 3,400 on the road. This is our main source of income and funds many of our projects.

The next DEC meeting will be held on Saturday September 21st, 9am central time at the Parkers Crossroads activities building off I-40 at exit 108 in the building behind the Visitors Center.

Make your plans to attend the SCV Tennessee Division Reunion in Greenville, it will be held at the General Morgan in April 17-18, 2020. This will be an election year for those that are wanting to run for Office.

The main thing is be vigilant and don't get discouraged; we have the truth on our side. Also, support each other and especially members that have just taken on a Camp Office. We all talk about needing new and younger members to take on leadership rolls, at first it can be intimidating especially when they have to deal with criticism of our own members. Remember that we are all on the same side!

I want to thank each of you for your membership in the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and your dedication to our Confederate ancestors.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

James G. Patterson, Commander

William Crawford Smith was born in Petersburg, Va Nov 26, 1837. He joined the Va Militia in 1859 and was a member of the Petersburg Grays at Harper's Ferry in 1859. When Lincoln illegally and unconstitutionally invaded the South he enlisted with the 12th Va Volunteer Infantry and served throughout the war being promoted to Sergeant and Regimental Color Sergeant. He was wounded at South Mountain, Maryland, and at the Battle of the Wilderness. He surrendered with his regiment at Appomattox.

After the war he moved to Nashville, TN and opened an office as an Architect, building the Parthenon in Nashville.

As did many former Confederate soldiers, with the outbreak of the Spanish American War, he enrolled and was mustered into service as Colonel of the 1st Tennessee Volunteer Infantry Regiment, U.S. Volunteers, in May of 1898. He led his regiment to the Philippine Islands in active service. In one of their first engagements Colonel Smith led the men forward near Manila on February 5th, 1899, while on the firing line he suddenly fell from the saddle of his horse and was lowered to the ground, he shortly thereafter died as a result of apoplexy (sudden internal bleeding) that was brought on as a result of heat exhaustion.

His body was returned home to Nashville where he is buried with full military honors at Mt Olivet Cemetery. Parthenon photo is from Confederate Veteran Magazine 1904

From the Lt. Commander:

Compatriots,

As previously announced, you are aware that I am seeking the office of Tennessee Division Commander in April 2020 at the Tennessee Division Reunion in Greeneville, TN. I do not take lightly the responsibility that goes with this position. I ask for your prayers, support and your vote for Tennessee Division Commander in 2020. I believe, with us all working together, we can make a difference. Which, by the way, brings me to the following question. What Difference Do We Make?

This is a question that each one of us should ask ourselves. Our goal every day of our lives should be to somehow influence everyone we meet in some way. Not just as an SCV member or regarding our Southern heritage, but in everything we do. It is my opinion, that our God directed purpose in life should be to be a positive influence on everyone we meet or come in contact with.

All this being said, how do we impact those in our family, our friends, fellow church members, co-workers, and everyone we have the blessed opportunity to influence? It is one thing to know the truth about our Southern heritage, but do we share that knowledge? Just as we are to share our Christian faith with others, so are we to educate all those we can with the truth about Southern history.

It is our job to make a difference. We cannot be content to have knowledge of the truth for our own use. It is our obligation to honor our Confederate ancestors by educating and recruiting all we can to the Southern cause. My ancestor, Private Levi Marion Kilgore, 28th TN Cavalry, Company C., cries out for me to tell my family, friends, those in my community, all those who do not know the truth, the truth.

For far too long we kept our heritage a secret. The time is now to make a difference. It is up to us, now, to spread the word. Let us all ask ourselves the question, what difference do we make? And let us all be able to answer that question with, we make a major difference. A difference in the lives of all those we meet, by sharing with them our Southern heritage.

God be with you all, and with our beloved Southland.

From the 2Lt. Commander:

Greetings compatriots!

I hope the reading of this finds us with cooler temperatures than we've been enduring here of late. Remember to stay vigilant keep guard of our monuments because antifa is alive and well.

Compatriots from Memphis to Bristol will begin to receive emails from me concerning recruitment in your particular area. I am now the recruiting chairman for The Tennessee Division.

The way this works is that I will receive emails from IHQ and other sources about men who have inquired about being members of the SCV. I will then forward the individuals contact information to an SCV compatriot in the area where the potential recruit lives. I will try to send these emails to the brigade commanders first but I have already sent some to compatriots that were in the area. Reach out to these potential recruits and invite them to a camp meeting .

If by chance you receive an email from me and it's not the right geographic location please email it back to me and I will try again. Let's all participate with this because we can never have too many members in the SCV.

Remember if you buy a tag you save a flag. There is no reason why every SCV member in the Tennessee Division should not have a Tennessee SCV license plate. Not only does the money go to save original confederate flags , it is also one of the primary revenue sources for the Tennessee Division SCV.

G Frank Heathman, 2LT CDR

Brigade Reports:

Mountain Brigade Report

The Mountain Brigade is composed of the Longstreet-Zollicoffer Camp # 87 in Knoxville and the N.B. Forrest Camp # 3 in Chattanooga.

The NBF # 3 Camp had a busy summer. The hot, dry weather had camp members busy cutting grass and weed eating to keep the Chattanooga Confederate Cemetery in pristine condition. Recent visits from NPS personnel made a favorable, positive impression. Confederate headstones have been requested from Veterans Services for a Alabama soldier and a Tennessee soldier.

The camp was represented at the recent National Reunion in Mobile and had good participation in the Forrest Boyhood Reunion this summer.

Sadly, the NBF # 3 Camp lost former First Lt. Commander Bob Myers this summer. The Camp was well represented at his funeral. Adjutant Doc Ashley and Commander Nick Norwood made an impressive donation for the Camp to the local Salvation Army for their "Beat-the-Heat" campaign.

Election of new Camp officers is planned for October.

The Longstreet-Zollicoffer Camp # 87 also had a busy summer. The Camp participated in the East Tenn. Historical Fair in Knoxville and the Sequoia History Fair, as well as the 8th annual Virginia Highlands Festival in Abingdon, VA.

Camp # 87 returned to participate in the annual Bristol Independence Day Parade down State Street which straddles two states, Tenn. and Va. They also returned to Independence Day celebrations in Pigeon Forge.

Election of Camp officers this summer returned leadership of the Camp to Earl Smith and other seasoned members. Collection of membership dues continues.

Planning is underway for Camp # 87's 27th annual Lee-Jackson on January 25th, 2020 at The Foundry in Knoxville. Renowned historian Ms. Teresa Roane from Richmond, VA will speak on "Why We Should Preserve Confederate Monuments and Memorials".

Two Camp members, as well as a member of the Chattanooga Camp received Dixie Club awards for superior recruiting efforts this past year.

Respectfully submitted,
Terry Siler,
Commander

Cumberland Mtn. Rifles, Camp 386 Report

Cumberland Mtn Rifles, Camp 386 has had a busy summer. Aside from events and our monthly meetings, we have also been working on new recruits.

- In observance of Confederate Decoration Day, Camp members cleaned and flagged the graves of Grundy County Confederates.

- Camp 386 participated in three area parades on July 4th in Monteagle, Altamont and Tracy City. The camp won ribbons, trophies and cash prizes in two of the parades. We had good participation by SCV and OCR members, and were well received by the spectators.

- For the Grundy County Fair, the camp set up a booth displaying flags and merchandise, with the opportunity and honor to share true history with those stopping by. For the week, there was record breaking attendance for the fair.

- Members of Camp 386 volunteered to work at Coalmont Elementary School for Make A Difference Day in July, with the wife of Governor

Bill Lee there as well. This was a great opportunity for the camp and SCV to be represented in a community.

- At the moment, we are in the process of signing up at least two new members, while retaining approximately 95% of our current membership.

- We are getting ready to place at least three military markers on the graves of men who served in the Confederate Army, but do not currently have military markers.

It is the purpose of Cumberland Mtn Rifles, Camp 386 to always represent the SCV and our ancestors with honor and respect. Whether at meetings, community events, or school programs, we always strive to be a positive influence to those who have no knowledge of true Southern history.

Nashville — James W. Barnes, 101, the oldest Confederate veteran in Tennessee, died at the home of his daughter near Antioch Saturday morning. He joined the Confederate Army at 17 and fought in small skirmishes throughout Tennessee for several years. There are now only two Confederate veterans living in Tennessee, J.L. Barry of Lebanon and James T. Graves of Hermitage.

Brigade Reports:

McLemore Brigade Report

We have made it through the heat of Summer and are now we're ready to move into Fall and cooler weather. Our camps have been active with events and contacting various Representatives about issues important to all of us.

Portland camp cleaning and restoring Confederate Graves

Camp #2177 in Portland Tennessee continues to serve. They have been actively involved in their community by consistently donating food items to a blessings box in town. They have also been bringing in excellent speakers to inform the camp and the general public. The camp has logged many hard hours reclaiming once abandoned cemeteries that contain Confederate soldiers. They also keep and maintain a beautiful Confederate flag on Route 109.

The Hatton Camp 723 has just completed a 10 Day Marathon at the Wilson County Fair. They had a wonderful display representing our ancestors in the SCV along with selling popcorn to fairgoers which is their major fundraising event for the year. They capped off this event with having Susan Lee of the Virginia flaggers as their guest speaker at their camp meeting

Hatton Camp at the Wilson County Fair

Camp 33 honoring those who died in the Murfreesboro raid with Forest

Camp #33 in Murfreesboro has begun working with a local church on the maintenance and care of the old city cemetery. They will be making donations for equipment to help with the maintenance. The camp has also made a pledge to honor all veterans by twice a year replacing the American flag at Evergreen Cemetery.. they will be assisting the same Davis Boyhood Home with events coming up later this fall.

Cheairs Camp #2138 continues to work on Spring Hill Cemetery making it a beautiful resting place for Captain Freeman and over fifty other Confederate soldiers. They have also been working in conjunction with members from Sam Watkins Brigade on the Bates Cemetery. Hopefully in the future it will be returned to its former glory.

Spring Hill Cemetery shining bright due to the hard work of the Nathaniel Cheairs camp

Sam Davis Camp#1293 has been working through the summer months maintaining Winstead Hill in Franklin. Members of this Camp have also been actively monitoring the goings-on in the city. The city of Franklin has been actively attacking our Southern history. The work ahead there is difficult but this Camp is up to the challenge.

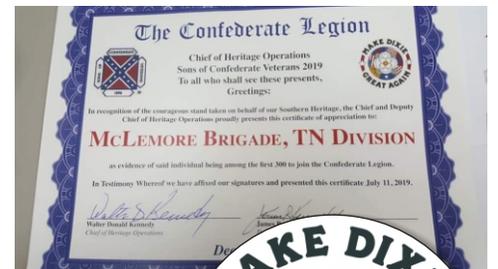

Joe Johnston camp #28 at the time of the writing of this report has had to cancel the Mount Olivet Cemetery tours for this fall. It is my hope we can all work together in the future to help resolve this situation. It takes at least 30 volunteers for this event to happen. This is an important event and we cannot afford to lose it.

General William Bate camp #34 continues to do excellent work with the preservation of the Gallatin Cemetery. The members of this Camp are also very active in presenting our cause to various state legislatures..

The information I currently have, 50% of the camps in our Brigade have decided to support the Confederate Legion.

Camps 2177, 33, 1293, and 723. This number may increase as more information comes in. The Brigade itself has also joined the Confederate Legion and was given an award at National Convention for being one of the first 300 to join.

This report is respectfully submitted by your humble servant, Tom Meadows McLemore Brigade Commander

Help Save General Forrest

The Memphis City Council, in the dark of night, removed the Forrest Equestrian Statue from Forrest Park and is threatening to dig up the graves of General Forrest and his wife MaryAnn from beneath the statue. The SCV and the Forrest family descendants must raise money to fight the city in this second attack on General Forrest. We need your help.

Help us save the graves and monument of General Forrest!
Will you or your camp donate $100, $500 or $1,000 to the defense?

Please sign me up as a supporter. No membership fee.
