Camp Contacts

Gentlemen of the Tennessee Division,

Previously, Commander Mike Beck asked the Brigade Commanders to contact the camps in their brigades and obtain at least two good solid contacts from each camp. The Brigade Commanders have responded but some camps did not/have not contacted their Brigade Commanders with the necessary information.

People have asked, "What can we do to respond to these attacks on Our Heritage?". We need contact information from each camp so you can be informed on what to do and when to do. And the when to do is critical and extremely time sensitive. You will be called into action and everyone will be needed.

Gentlemen, I encourage you to ensure your Brigade Commanders have contact information from your camp. If needed; do not hesitate to provide me with the contact information as I am building the database.

Gentlemen, The Eleventh Hour is approaching.

Your humble servant,

Jason Boshers, Editor

Fellow Compatriots of the Tennessee Division,

I have decided to run for the office of Tennessee Division Commander of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. These are very serious times for our Confederate history, I believe that with the experience that I have working with those inside and outside of our organization, I can make a difference and lead the Tennessee Division. I have been a member of Murfreesboro SCV Camp # 33 since 1991 and am a life member of the SCV. I have held the office of Camp Adjutant, Tennessee Division Brigade Commander, 2nd Lieutenant Commander and am currently 1st Lieutenant Commander. On the SCV National level, I was the Committee chairman for the 2102 SCV National Reunion in Murfreesboro, currently the Army of Tennessee councilman and was awarded the Robert E. Lee award at the 2015 SCV National Reunion in Richmond Virginia.

Outside of the SCV, I have been married for 36 years to my wife Melanie who is a member of the Jane Simons Davis OCR Chapter #6 . We have two children: Matt who is an SCV life member, and Callie who has blessed us with two grand daughters Lily Ann and Abigail Grace. I am President of the Sam Davis Memorial Association board of directors, which oversees the 168 acre family home and farm of the Confederate Hero Sam Davis. I am a Master mason and member of Mount Moriah Lodge #18, NRA member, and avid gun enthusiast.

Your vote for James Patterson
Sons of Confederate Veterans
Tennessee Division Commander
Will be greatly appreciated!

Compatriots,

Although most of you know me, I will introduce myself to those who do not. My name is Joey Nolan, current 2nd Lt. Commander of the Tennessee Division, SCV. I live in Tracy City, TN with my wonderful wife, Donna Beth, and our two youngest sons, Grayson and Beau. We have an older daughter, Nikki, and two older sons, Chris and Sam. I can proudly say that all five of our children are well aware of their Southern heritage. As a Christian, I know well the importance of seeking out the old paths, and walking therein, as the Bible teaches us. This is true historically, as well as spiritually. As a member of Cumberland Mtn. Rifles, Camp 386 in Tracy City, in which I have held the positions of Lt. Commander and Commander of Camp 386, along with also holding the position of Starnes Brigade Commander.

It has been a great honor to serve as 2nd Lt. Commander in the Tennessee Division of the Sons of Confederate Veterans since being elected at the April 2014 Tennessee Division Reunion in Union City, TN. I have been blessed to become acquainted with many more fellow SCV members over the past year and a half. After many discussions with my wife, and much thought and prayer, I announce my candidacy for the position of Lt. Commander of the Tennessee Division.

The decision to seek election to this position is not one I take lightly. In thinking back, I remember the first marker dedication I attended in Tracy City in the fall of 2003 hosted by members of the SCV. I went home and immediately began trying to research my ancestry to try and find a Confederate, which would allow me to join. From that day forward, my Southern heritage became more important to me than ever before.

As we all well know, recent events have changed how our Southern heritage is viewed by others. It is up to us to set the record straight. We must make sure future generations have the opportunity to observe and know the truth of their Southern ancestry and heritage.

If elected, I promise to do all I can, with the help of God our father, and His son Jesus, to honorably serve the Tennessee and SCV to the best of my ability. Feel free to contact me anytime at: scvproud@gmail.com, 931-592-6125 or 931-315-9065.

Your support and vote for the position of Lt. Commander of the Tennessee Division at the 2016 Tennessee Division Reunion in Knoxville, TN are appreciated.

Your Brother In The Cause,
Joey Nolan, 2nd Lt. Cmdr., TN Div.

Ed Butler was raised on a hundred-acre hill farm in West Kentucky, and says he's fortunate to have received a good Confederate education. Learning and preserving family history has been one of his favorite endeavors, as a primary result of his father's teachings. Ed's father was born in 1897 and was a WWI Veteran who lived in the home of a Confederate Veteran for two and a half years after his mother died.

This background exposed Ed to the first-hand knowledge of a Confederate Veteran.

Ed has served the Sons of Confederate Veterans in several capacities at the Camp, Division, and National levels.

During his term as Tennessee Division Commander, Ed attended 206 events and says: "It was one of the greatest adventures of my life; I had more fun than anyone during those years! My motivation derives from the fact that Southern children, from elementary grades to graduate school, have been using history books authored by Yankees which not only fail to tell the Southern side of history but also edit the truth to describe the North as honorable winners. Thanks to my father, my life has been spent searching the Southern history of that war. I can assure you, We Have Nothing to Apologize For!"

Reservations are required and accepted via payment, only! Seating is limited.

All reservations must be received by Wednesday, February 24, 2016.

Starnes Brigade Report

Submitted by Wes Pullen, Commander

John R. Massey Camp #152

The John R. Massey Camp has gained 3 new members. They have put a Iron Cross on their Camps namesake's grave this year. They had their Forrest Birthday Dinner in July and held their Lee-Jackson Dinner in January.

Sumner A. Cunningham Camp #1620

Sickness still abounds in this camp. Les Marsh is again the Commander with the resignation of Rodney Lindsey due to health reasons. This camp has been quiet but has still gained about 4 new members.

A.P. Stewart Camp #1411

Michael Clowers is the new adjutant. They continue to maintain the Templeton Confederate Memorial. They had two marker dedications (One marker was bought with Brigade Funds) at Templeton Cemetery. This was co-hosted by the UDC chapter 1720. They had a camp family picnic and camp Christmas party. They gained 3 new members but lost 8 by Camp members resigning or transferring.

Cumberland Mtn. Rifles, Camp #386

Sold a large number of Confederate Flags and also gave many away. All of this after the Charleston disaster. Purchased airtime at the local television station airing the official response from SCV headquarters featuring Lt. CIC Tom Strain. On their Facebook page begin a monthly posting featuring a Grundy County Confederate soldier entitled "Grundy County Heroes. They had their annual fundraiser event called "Socks for Rebels" in which they collected socks for school kids in need. They sponsored a booth at the "Mountaineer Days Festival" in Tracy City. They hosted a parade and flag rally at the Confederate monument on the old Grundy County Courthouse Square in Altamont, Tn. Officials in attendance included Altamont mayor Jana Barrett, Grundy County mayor Michael Brady, Marshall Rangers Commander Ellery Malone, Starnes Brigade Commander Earl W/ Pullen and Tn. Div. Commander Mike Beck. They had a "Halloween in the Park" community festival in Greutill-Laager. They were asked to set up a booth in which flags, Tn. Div. Comic books were given away and well received. On Veterans Day, flags were placed on Grundy County Confederate soldiers. They had their annual Christmas dinner with featured speaker Dr. Michael Bradley and finally they had a Lee-Jackson Dinner where they paid honor to Generals Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson.

Marshall Rangers Camp #297

Camp #297 had 25 members at the start of the year. We lost 3 members, including Commander Ronnie Cheek. Our new Commander is Ellery Malone. We gained 16 new members during this time, thanks a lot for the internet, AmTech Industries, word of mouth, and member advisement. This brings our membership up to 38. Each new member gets a new SCV logo cap given free by Camp Adjutant Pullen. This has paid off also, as one of our new members was obtained by word of mouth. It pays to advertise.

We are still in the process of GPSing Confederate Graves and documenting them. There are some amazing stories to come from this, and I will tell some later. We lost 1 grandson due to retirement. He is in his eighties. He was our black member and as he told me he retired from everything except "honeydo" duties and the job he does with Lyon Chevrolet. He was with us for 10 years. We still have 5 grandsons in this camp. We are tied at number 1 with a camp in Biloxi, Mississippi. That will change though as soon as I hear from the UDC, because a grandson/granddaughter dedication will be in the near future with the Marshall Rangers as hosts. We had a summer picnic in June with a good turn out, and a Christmas dinner in December. Adjutant Pullen was awarded the "Dixie Award" from National this year. For those who want to know what the Dixie Award is, look it up and strive to receive one. We also took up money from members and the Camp matched funds for a charitable cause. The results was a donation of $260.00 which was donated to Hunters for the Hungry to help feed senior citizens in need in Marshall County.

Gen. Benjamin F. Cheatham Camp #72

Mr. Richard Dix is the program director for the Manchester Camp. He always has a good interesting program prepared. They have participated in numerous local events such as the Cowan Fall Heritage Festival and Christmas Parade. The Lynchburg BBQ and Christmas parade. Camp membership has held steady and at the present time they are enjoying an influx of new members.

Quantrell-Anderson Camp #37

No Report

Dr. J. B. Cowan Camp #155

Camp location has moved to Wilson Hall. They have a new adjutant named Robert Boswell. A book is sold as a fundraiser at their meetings. They continue to take care of the Confederate Cemetery in Tullahoma. They also gained new members.

The Charleston Disaster made Starnes Brigade grow, and made more of us think about our heritage. The result, camp memberships have grown.

Greetings from the Ft. Donelson Brigade

There are five active Camps in the Brigade.

Camp 260 meets on the first Sat. of each month at their historic St. Paul's church house, just outside of Charlotte. The Capt. McCauley has (at last count) 42 active members and growing. They had eleven Compatriots take advantage of the "Special" on Life Membership in the SCV. Comm. Barry Mayberry asked specifically that I let you know that you are all invited to their annual Heritage Days Festival 12, 13, 14 May 2016.

Camp 225 (Clarksville) meets on the 2nd Tues of each month at the Campbell's Kitchen on Dover Rd. Their Jan program was given by Mrs. Carolyn Stier Ferrell who presented her book "Occupied: The Story of Clarksville, Tennessee During the Civil War." The February meeting was brought by WWII vet, Claus "Dutch" Mann who served with the 82nd Airborne and 101st. In December several Compatriots attended the Ft Donelson Camp Christmas Banquet. The Frank P. Gracey Camp will be again participating in the Irish Parade at Erin in March. They will be conducting a Memorial Service on the Sunday before Memorial Day and continue to work with the Col. Cyrus Sugg Camp on the Ft. Redmond project.

Camp 1792 meets on each 2nd Sat at the Campbell's Kitchen. They are working with Camp 225 on sponsoring the planned walking trails at Ft Redmond at Adams. According to Commander Horton (225) they will be doing living history portrayals along the trail.

Camp 249 meets on the 2nd Tues of each month at the Stewart Co. Public Library.

Camp 270 meets on the last Mon of each month at the American Legion post in Greenbrier. The Gen'l John Hunt Morgan Camp has 57 active members. The Camp maintains the Flag and Memorial flower garden at the Greenbrier Cemetery (that they erected several years ago). They also place a wreath (or flowers and decorations) at the CSA Memorial they placed on the Courthouse lawn each season. Camp 270 is growing and planning several projects this year.

The Ft. Donelson Camp has been active the last few months. In late October, we held our annual Field day for all 5th graders in our county. In Dec. we held a joint Christmas Dinner with the local UDC Chapter with over 50 in attendance. Currently we are assisting Ft. Donelson with the 154th anniversary events.

Report of the Col. Jeffrey Forrest Brigade in West TN - February 13, 2016

The camps in the brigade have been actively involved in fulfilling the charge given to us by Stephen D. Lee. I would like to say thank you to all our compatriots who work so hard to share the true history of the South and bring honor to our brave Confederate ancestors.

Our brigade has lost 2 compatriots in recent months, W. Hamilton Parks II and James Overall. Both of these men have been longtime members and supporters of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. They both will be greatly missed. Our thoughts and prayers continue with their families.

Camp Reports:

Col. Jeffrey Forrest Camp #323 (Commander Greg Nail) - Camp 323 is alive! Back during August we hosted Mr. Scott Sallee, author of Joe Porter's War, for an informative and enjoyable camp meeting. Our recruiting efforts have landed three new members during late 2015. We are working with several prospects currently. Also, we have just recently reached an agreement with local radio to air a 30-second recruiting ad at target audiences during the months of March and April. Finally, we are working to secure another program speaker for our next camp meeting, tentatively set for March.

Camp 323 Meeting

Hill-Freeman Camp #1472 (Commander Jeff Boyd) - We have two new members that joined in the last part of 2015 and we had one member to pass away recently, Mr. James Overall, one of the first members of the camp in Trenton. We have replaced the flags at 3 cemeteries and are already planning for the Confederate Memorial Day in June.

Salem Cemetery

John B. Ingram Bivouac #219 (Commander John Blankenship) – We have had several inquiries about membership in the SCV. Camp 219 has replaced several Confederate Flags in local cemeteries. We have received some nice compliments about the new flag flying in Rose Hill Cemetery in Humboldt. Some of our members have been involved in reactivating the old Salem Cemetery Battlefield Association in Jackson. Camp #219 was instrumental with this site back in the 90's. The SCV has brochures available at the battlefield welcome center. A

Humboldt Flag

First National Flag is flying at this site. Camp 219 meets at the Old Country Store in Jackson.

Pvt. Ike Stone Camp #564 (Commander Jim Weaver) – Camp 564 meets monthly at Parker's Crossroads Battlefield. The camp continues to help with the preservation of the battlefield and also the remodeling of the activities building. The camp also has been involved with projects near the historic Denmark Presbyterian Church and the Britton Lane Battlefield.

Otho French Strahl Camp #176 (Commander John Abernathy) – Camp 176 continues to maintain the Parks Cemetery Ridge Confederate Memorial Plaza in Trimble. The camp is also saddened by the loss of Longtime SCV Member and Compatriot, W. Hamilton Parks II. A special memorial service with an SCV Honor Guard is planned for April 23rd at the Trimble Flag site in honor of Compatriot Parks. Plans are being made to continue the restoration of the Unknown Soldiers Monument in Union City. Camp 176 meets monthly at Another Thyme Restaurant in Union City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Parks

Bell's Partisans #1821 (Commander Shawn Rainey) – Camp 1821 is raising funds for the restoration of the 7th Tennessee Cavalry Guidon Flag. The flag is currently housed at the Tennessee Sate Museum. The camp has set up a “GoFundMe” page for people to donate. Also, camp 1821 hosted a potluck dinner in mid December, the dinner was well attended. The camp also sends condolences to the family of Compatriot W. Hamilton Parks II. Thank you to Mr. Parks for his dedication to the SCV. He will surely be missed. Camp 1821 has added several new members and meets monthly in Trimble at the Community Center.

Camp 1821

Crockett Rangers #1774 (Commander Terry Weaver) – Camp 1774 continues to maintain our membership and is still honoring our Confederate Ancestors.

The brigade held its Annual Lee-Jackson Banquet in January in Union City. The evening was hosted by Camp 176. Compatriot Kenny Carmichael spoke on the Confederate Constitution. The dinner was well attended by the SCV, the OCR and guests. We thank each of you for coming. As you have seen, the Col. Jeffrey Forrest Brigade is still standing strong!

I would personally like to thank each one of the members of our brigade for your dedication to the cause. This April completes my first year serving as your Brigade Commander. It has been an honor to be able to hold this position and I could not have done it without your help and support. I would like to continue to serve as your Commander and ask for your support and vote at the TN Division Reunion. If I can be of service to you, in any way, please feel free to call on me.

God Bless,

Ole Bedford's Black Eye Pea & Sweet Potato Luncheon

July 9, 2016: 11:30 am until 1 pm
Commemorating Confederate General
Nathan Bedford Forrest's birthday and
July 13, 1862 Murfreesboro Raid

On July 13, 1862 (which was also Forrest's 41st birthday) Confederate Colonel Nathan Bedford Forrest made an early morning raid on Murfreesboro. His Confederate Cavalry attacked yankee troops at three locations and when the dust settled the yankees surrendered. He then sat down at Oakland's Mansion for a victory meal of black eye peas and sweet potatoes. This was all that was left, due to foraging by the yankees. Our luncheon commemorates this Confederate victory and celebrates the birthday of one of the South's greatest Generals. War era musical entertainment will be provided by "The Caudells". Our meal will be Black eye peas, sweet potatoes, BBQ, slaw, potato salad, drinks, and a birthday cake to celebrate the General's birthday. A commemorative badge and program will be provided for each guest.

Directions to Oakland's Mansion picnic pavilion: From I-24 take exit 81 and go towards Murfreesboro on Hwy. 231, turn right onto Broad Street (Hwy. 41) and go to the first red light and turn left onto Maney Avenue. Follow Maney until it ends directly at the driveway to Oakland's. Turn right onto Roberts Street and go to the parking lot on the left. We will go to the Old City cemetery on Vine street immediately following the luncheon for a memorial at the Forrest's Raid monument.

TENNESSEE CONFEDERATE FACTS

In 1860 more free people of color lived in Tennessee than in Illinois, Indiana, or Ohio.

Many prominent Tennesseans opposed secession. Among them was Nathan Bedford Forrest.

More military action took place in Tennessee than any other Confederate state with the exception of Virginia.

Shiloh, April 6-7, 1862, was the largest battle ever fought in North America at that time.

A regiment of Cherokee enlisted in the Confederate army from East Tennessee. This regiment fought on the outskirts of
 Washington, D.C. In 1864.

Horace L. Hunley was born in Gallatin, TN.
 The submarine he developed was the first successful sinking of an enemy vessel in wartime.

Tennessee Heritage Protection Act Of 2013

 plaque which has been erected for, or named or dedicated in honor of any conflict the United

Rack Cards

The Tennessee Division printed License Plate Rack Cards to be placed in car tag registration and other valid places to let people know and to encourage them to purchase a Confederate License Plate. If you know of a place where these can be placed for eye traffic please contact your Brigade Commander. These car tags are a rolling billboard for our organizations and for displaying Southern Loyalty and Love. If you do not have one;
 I encourage you to get one and to encourage others.

To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we submit THE VINDICATION OF THE CAUSE FOR WHICH WE FOUGHT; to your strength will be given the DEFENSE OF THE CONFEDERATE SOLDIER'S GOOD NAME, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, THE PERPETUATION OF THE PRINCIPLES HE LOVED and which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Remember, it is your duty to see that THE TRUE HISTORY OF THE SOUTH IS PRESENTED TO FUTURE GENERATIONS
