Compatriots of the Tennessee Division:

I hope that all is well with you and your Camp; it's hard to believe that we are already into the second month of 2019. There have been a lot of good reports about Lee-Jackson banquets from across the Division. I attended the Highland Brigade Lee-Jackson event in Smithville and it was a top shelf event with over 150 in attendance, SCV CIC Paul Grambling was the guest speaker. Thanks to Highland Brigade Commander James Lovelace and Mike Corley with the Savage-Goodner Camp for making the event a success. The attacks on our Heritage are ramping up again and CIC Grambling asked the question "are you as committed as our enemies' are?" I now ask each of you the same question, are you as committed as our enemies' are? Have you recruited new members, have you attended Camp events and events with other SCV Camps, have you volunteered to help with a Camp projects or ran for a Camp office, have you donated money to the SCV Confederate museum, are you going to the Tennessee Division Reunion? All of these questions should be answered with a yes!

Since the November election we have already seen several attacks on our Confederate Heritage here in Tennessee. On January 2nd the Tennessean ran an article and asked newly elected Governor Lee about moving the Forrest bust in the state capitol; he said he opposed its removal. This is great news and a big turnaround from the previous Governor. The following day the Tennessean ran another article, which had been previously printed in August of 2017, listing Confederate monuments across the state of Tennessee. It has been obvious for some time that the Tennessean is anti-Confederate and has an agenda to provoke more attacks against our Confederate Heritage. Last year a slanted article was ran in the Tennessean on our SCV license plates, with comments from a Memphis legislator condemning our tags. Gannett publishing owns USA Today and six of the major newspapers in Tennessee: The Commercial Appeal in Memphis, The Tennessean in Nashville, The News Journal in Murfreesboro, The Knoxville News-Sentinel, The Jackson Sun and The Clarksville-Leaf Chronical. In addition Gannett owns 100 daily newspapers and 1,000 weekly newspapers. With that much of our news controlled by one company, it's no wonder we have so much agenda driven fake news!

There has recently been an attempt to change the way the Tennessee Historical Commission places members on the board and the process for getting a waiver for monument removal. Bill HB0022 would have done that, fortunately it was pulled after it was sent to a committee. More attacks are coming, as most of you have seen it's happening across the country with attempts to rewrite Heritage Preservation acts. We all have to be vigilant and when you get an email or message to contact public officials follow up on it! Once again I ask, are you as committed as our enemies' are?

On a sad note, SCV member Paul Metz who lived behind the Forrest home, passed away suddenly. He was a great help to Gene Andrews and did most of the repair work on the equipment. Paul will be missed in many ways, may he rest in peace.

There are several events coming up and I hope that each of you will be able to attend one or all of them. Our Confederate Flag Day commemoration will be on Saturday March 2nd, each Camp should hold a flag rally or participate in one with other Camps. This year we will once again make the Forrest home in Chapel Hill the rally point for those that can make it. At 2:00 pm we will have a few words and time for some fellowship.

On Saturday April 6, 2019 12:00 noon, there will be a memorial service at Stone Mountain in Georgia. It will be held at the memorial plaza which is in front of the carving. CIC Paul Grambling will be the keynote speaker. Also in April is our Tennessee Division Reunion at Pickwick landing. If you haven't made plans to attend, do so asap. This will be a great Reunion and I hope to see you there.

Keep the faith, live by the charge.

Deo Vindice!

I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

To you, Sons of Confederate Veterans, we submit the vindication of the cause for which we fought; to your strength will be given the defense of the confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of the principles he loved and which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Remember, it is your duty to see that the true history of the south is presented to future generations

Stephen D. Lee 1906

From the Lt. Commander:

Brothers of the TN Division,

I trust you and your family had a blessed Christmas and great start to the new year. As I am sure you all will agree, 2018 was eventful to say the least. I trust each of us has been active in promoting our Southern heritage. Although the attacks on our heritage have not ceased, our resolve has been steadfast with many great accomplishments in the fight.

It has been a true blessing to be able to travel to several states, big cities and small towns in 2018. Everywhere my family and I have traveled, we have seen Southern heritage displayed, whether in the form of monuments, statues, yard flags, mega flags, signs, or many other ways. Our heritage is still loved and respected by a vast number of those in the South, and other states.

I had the honor of speaking at the 2019 Lee - Jackson Banquet for the Col. Jeffrey Forrest Brigade, hosted by Bells Partisans, Camp 1821, in Trimble TN on Saturday January 19. This was the second consecutive year that I and my family have been privileged to visit and attend this event.

I personally as well as my home Camp of Cumberland Mtn. Rifles, Camp 386, is starting the "Us - Now" campaign, to take control of the narrative, and the initiative, in promoting "our" heritage. Although it is my wish that I could take credit for this, the inspiration actually comes from Army of Tennessee Commander, Jason Bosher. As he has so encouragingly stated concerning taking control of promoting our Southern heritage, "If not us, who? If not now, when?" It is up to us, not the liberals in Hollywood, news media or social media, to promote the truth about our Confederate ancestors. We cannot allow them to continue to be portrayed as traitors, but tell the truth of their bravery and exercising their right to fight for independence.

I urge us all to be encouraged and increased in our desire and knowledge concerning our Confederate history and heritage. We must learn all we can, while we can, so we can properly teach our children and future generations. As the Bible teaches us, we should study to show ourselves approved. We must be armed with knowledge and truth, because they are our greatest weapons.

I will conclude with three questions. 1) When was the last time you recruited someone into the SCV? Don't be afraid to ask someone if they are interested. If they say no, ask others. And concerning recruitment and promotion: 2) If not us, who? 3) If not now, when? Let us stand up and in the gap for our ancestors, because they took a stand for us.

God bless America, and God bless DIXIE!

Your humble servant,

Joey Nolan, Lt. Cmdr., TN Div.
Cumberland Mtn. Rifles, Camp 386

Bylaw Changes

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

To amend the Division Constitution to require a Brigade Adjutant be chosen.

Reasoning: currently the Brigade Adjutant is an optional office and, for consistency among brigades, this Amendment modification simply requires that each brigade have an adjutant. It provides for a more uniform organization of each of the Division's brigades.

In addition, the Bgde Adjutant could also fill in as an official Brigade representative for the Bgde Commander or Bgde Lt Cdr at brigade functions if those men were not available.

To amend Article VI – DUTIES OF OFFICERS, Section 6, to state that the Brigade Commander SHALL appoint a Brigade Adjutant.

The Articles / Sections shall be amended with these modifications:

Article VI – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

Section 6 -- The Brigade Commanders shall aid the Camps assigned by the Division Commander to their Brigade and fulfill all duties as required by the Commander. Each Brigade Commander ~~may~~ shall appoint an adjutant to assist him in his duties.

Submitted by Lee Millar, N. B. Forrest Camp 215, Jan 26, 2019

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

To amend the Division Constitution to recommend that the annual Division Reunion be held on the fourth weekend in April of each year.

Reasoning: the Division needs a uniformly consistent timeframe for the annual Reunion so that members and potential host camps can make more efficient plans and consistent schedules for this recurring event.

In the past, the Division has held the annual reunion on the fourth weekend of the month of April. In recent years, however, a variety of April weekends have been selected which has caused members to be unable to make consistent yearly plans to attend the reunion, and caused conflicts with other established events. With our reunion scheduled on a set date each year more members and host camps can plan for the event by knowing for years in advance the dates of the reunion. The fourth weekend in April, as traditionally held, has the fewest conflicts with other regional and national events that could cause hardships and potentially draw our members elsewhere.

To amend Article IV – STATE ORGANIZATION, Section 5, to add that the Reunion shall be held on the fourth weekend of April, or that, upon special request of a host camp citing extenuating circumstances, the date can be changed with an affirmative vote of the Division Executive Council.

The Articles / Sections shall be amended with these modifications:

Article IV – STATE ORGANIZATION

Section 5 – The annual date for the Tennessee Division Convention shall be the fourth weekend in April in conjunction with the annual Reunion. Upon special request of a host camp citing extenuating circumstances, the date can be changed with an affirmative vote of the Division Executive Council. Each Camp shall be notified forty-five (45) days in advance of any Division Convention. The rules of procedure at Conventions shall be those set forth in "Robert's Rules of Order, Revised" except wherein they may be altered by the Convention.

A quorum shall be established when one-third of the current Camps in the Tennessee Division are present. A current Camp is defined as a Camp that has a membership of at least seven members that have paid their National and Division dues.

Proposed Constitutional Amendment

To amend the Division Constitution to add the office of Brigade Lieutenant Commander as an authorized brigade officer. This officer would represent the brigade in the absence of the brigade commander.

Reasoning: the Brigade Commander represents up to several hundred members and if for some reason the Brigade Commander cannot attend a DEC meeting then currently those hundreds of men have no voice or no vote. This amendment provides for a brigade lieutenant commander or then some other selected brigade member to represent the brigade and cast any vote that may arise thus including the brigade and its members in Division administration.

In addition, the Bgde Lieutenant Cdr could also officially fill in for the Bgde Commander at brigade functions if the brigade commander is not available.

To amend Article IV – STATE ORGANIZATION, Section 2, to add that a Brigade and the camps thereof shall also elect a Brigade Lieutenant Commander to support the Brigade Commander. This Brigade Lieutenant Commander shall be elected in the same manner as the Bgde Commander.

In all subsequent Articles, such as V – OFFICERS, Section 4, and VI – DUTIES OF OFFICERS, Section 6, the term "Bgde Commander" will likewise confer the same duties/requirements, etc, interchangeably upon the Brigade Lieutenant Commander if the Brigade Commander is not available.

The Articles / Sections shall be amended with these modifications:

Article IV – STATE ORGANIZATION

Section 2 – The Tennessee Division shall be divided into Brigades. The Brigade Commanders shall be elected at the Division Convention by a majority vote of the delegates of the Camps within their respective Brigades. A Brigade and the camps thereof shall also elect a Brigade Lieutenant Commander to support the Brigade Commander. The Brigade Lieutenant Commander shall be elected in the same manner as the Brigade Commander, and hereinafter all references to the Brigade Commander will likewise confer the same duties/requirements, etc upon the Brigade Lieutenant Commander as shall be applicable to the Brigade Commander and will represent the Brigade in the absence of the Brigade Commander.

Grave of Douglas the Confederate Camel

Among the 5,000 grave markers for Confederate soldiers in the Soldier's Rest section of Cedar Hill Cemetery in Vicksburg, Mississippi, one pays tribute to Old Douglas, the camel of the 43rd Mississippi infantry, Company A, nicknamed "The Camel Regiment."

It is not known how Douglas, a dromedary (one hump) camel, came to serve with the 43rd Mississippi infantry during the Civil War. He was a gift to Colonel W. H. Moore, who assigned him to carry the instruments and knapsacks for the regimental band. Douglas participated in the Battles of Iuka and Corinth under Major Generals Sterling Price and Earl Van Dorn, respectively, before being shot by a union sharpshooter on June 27th, 1863, during the siege of Vicksburg.

Douglas was well loved by the humans of his regiment, less so by the horses. On one occasion, Douglas is said to have spooked one of the horses into stampeding through a camp near Iuka, injuring horses and soldiers, possibly killing some of the former. Soldiers climbed trees to get out of the path of destruction.

Douglas routinely broke free of his tether, but usually used his freedom to graze, never wandering too far from the regiment.

On that fateful day in 1863, though, he wandered into no man's land between the Union and Confederate armies, and paid the ultimate price.

The Union army responded to the camel's death, according to legend, by eating him, since food was scarce, and making war souvenirs out of his bones. The Confederates responded by making a point of severely wounding the sharpshooter who had killed their beloved camel.

Douglas was not the only camel in the United States during the Civil War. Before he became president of the Confederacy, Jefferson Davis was the U.S. Secretary of War, and implemented the Texas Camel Experiment in the 1850s to see how useful camels would be in the American Southwest where horses were beginning to have trouble on long trips. Camels can carry immensely heavy loads for long distances with little water. They are also not nearly as tamable as horses, though Douglas was called "faithful" and "patient" by those who knew him best.

Camels were brought over from the Mediterranean and North Africa, and used for exploring the Southwest. The Civil War took the steam out of the experiment, and the camels eventually dispensed. Many were sold at auctions in 1864 and 1866 to work in circuses and mines, as postal carriers and pack animals and racing camels. Some even escaped or were set free, and feral camels were occasionally spotted roaming the American Southwest for years after.

Lest the contributions of camels in the Civil War be forgotten, the Texas Camel Corps promotes their stories with reenactments and hosts camel rides. Two of the camels are descendants of Old Douglas.

our Southern heritage in many ways.

- The camp displayed a great float in the Monteagle and Tracy City July 4th parades.
- We had a booth and living history camp site at the Grundy County Fair, where we were well received. Many Confederate flag stickers, as well as small flags, were given to kids and teens, or anyone else who wished to display one.
- Members of Camp 386 worked locating and cleaning the graves and headstones of Confederate soldiers buried in Grundy County.
- The 2018 Christmas Dinner was held at the Episcopal Church Parrish House in Tracy City. Our special guests were Tom and Dottie Meadows. We were blessed to have nearly half of our camp members four Cadets, along with their families, in attendance.
- Camp 386 is now running a Spring campaign to raise money for the purchase of military markers for those with nothing showing their Confederate service.
- The camp is also preparing to install a monument honoring all Confederates buried in the City Cemetery in Tracy City.
- Since November, three new members and two Cadets have been added to the camp roster. This brings our total to 45 members and 7 cadets.
- Camp 386 is starting the "Us - Now" campaign, to take control of the initiative in promoting "our" heritage. The inspiration for this comes from Army of Tennessee Commander, Jason Boshers. ## Mountain Brigade Report

N.B. Forrest Camp # 3 in Chattanooga ended 2018 with an informal Christmas get together for Camp members and their families. The event was well attended and the barbeque meal and door prizes were enjoyed by all. Wreaths Across America was celebrated at the historic Chattanooga Confederate Cemetery with a record number of wreaths being placed on most of the graves. As usual, the new calendar year started with the annual Lee-Jackson banquet at the historic Dent House. Army of Tennessee Commander Jason Boshers and his wife Linda were the guests of honor. Commander Boshers presented an inspiring message on upholding and preserving our Southern traditions. He reviewed the ongoing heritage battles in Tennessee and in other areas of the Southland. He mentioned the recent desecration of the Silent Sam monument at UNC which generated a lively group discussion.

Camp meetings and programs for the year have started. Several outstanding speakers and programs have been scheduled. Recruiting new members is steady and the Camp has retained most of the membership from last year.

Longstreet-Zollicoffer Camp # 87 in Knoxville continues to remain one of the largest and most active Camps in the Confederation. They retained a high percentage of their membership and continue to recruit quality new members. Their 26th annual Lee-Jackson Celebration was the highlight of the winter season. Recent Tennessee House of Representative member Steve McDaniel was the featured speaker and presented an inspiring talk entitled "We are in a Political Battle, Not a Historical Debate". As usual, the event attracted many community leaders, members of other SCV Camps and many UDC ladies and their families.

Upcoming Camp activities include: Confederate Flag Day in March, the Tenn. Division Reunion in April, and Confederate Memorial Day in June.

By planning out those events early they have more time to get things done. With many events happening early in the year it's a must to plan for them in the last quarter of the year.

The Highland Brigade holds it's self to a high standard in our efforts to work with the cities, local law enforcement and other groups within our cities. ## H. L. Hunley Junior ROTC Award program

Compatriots of the Tennessee Division,

Please see the newspaper photo and caption of the H.L. Hunley JROTC Award present by Envoy, Martin Frost at Lexington, TN. Martin staged the photo and wrote the caption in a succinct exemplary manner. Notice all the information included in only a few words. This is what newspaper editors look for. I suggest camps presenting the Hunley Award make a copy of Martin's caption and use it as a tool by plugging in names specific to your location.

Bob Gentry, Hunley JROTC Award Coordinator for the Tennessee Division

The Lexington High School Air Force Junior R. O. T. C. held Awards Night 2018 on Tuesday, April 17th. One of the National Awards was presented to Matthew Carlson, son of Christine and Don Carlson, of Lexington. Cadet Carlson was presented the H. L. Hunley Award, given by the Sons of Confederate Veterans, and given to a deserving JROTC underclassman. This award is chosen by instructors for having demonstrated the characteristics of honor, courage, and commitment. The award honors the courageous submariners of the CSS H. L. Hunley, who were lost at sea in February 1864. The award was presented by Martin Frost, LHS Class of 1967, and a Lifetime Member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

Hatton Camp presents first H. L. Hunley Award

Several members of the Hatton Camp were on hand to present the camp's first ever H.L. Hunley award to Junior R.O.T.C. cadet Mary DesJardins at Lebanon High School. We could not have asked for a better reception from the staff and faculty, or a more gracious recipient and her family. It was a great evening. Our camp was well represented, and it was a special evening for everyone!

As appeared in the local newspaper, The Lebanon Democrat

H.L. HUNLEY AWARD PRESENTED TO LEBANON JROTC CADET

Submitted to The Democrat

The Lebanon High School Air Force JROTC played host to the annual ROTC Ball recently. The H.L. Hunley Award was presented to Mary DesJardins, daughter of Lori and Joseph DesJardins, of Lebanon. DesJardins received the award as a deserving JROTC underclassman, chosen by her instructors for her demonstration of the characteristics of honor, courage and commitment. The award honors the courageous submariners of the CSS H.L. Hunley, who were lost at sea February 1864. Members of the Gen. Robert H. Hatton Camp No. 723 Sons of Confederate Veterans presented the award.

Help Needed at the Forrest Boyhood Home

The N B Forrest boyhood home in Chapel Hill is one of several SCV owned properties. Gene Andrews spends countless hours at the site keeping it in excellent condition. Here are a few projects that he would like to have some help on:

- ★ Finish the rock wall at front gate and finish walk down to well, $500 donated from the NBF Camp. This will take working with concrete and mortar.
- ★ Paint and repair gables on the boyhood cabin, which will take a ladder and scaffolding.
- ★ Finish sloping sides to the sink hole and remove six small trees and clean up tree limbs.
- ★ Remove rock and sew grass beside drive, some of the rock can be use on the walk down to the well.
- ★ Build a cedar rail fence around the cave, help with Eagle Scout project.
- ★ Clear area and set fence on the East side of the property, there is some chainsaw work left to do and then the fence can be set.

- ★ If your camp or Brigade would like to take on one of these projects let Gene know to schedule a work day.
- ★ The annual Forrest homecoming this year we will be on Saturday June 15th and we need some Camps to volunteer to help with the setup, take down and a few other areas. There will be set up days on Thursday June 13th and Friday June 14th. Contact Tim Morrison to volunteer: tenn32rebel@yahoo.com

The Memphis Brigade is proud to announce the re-activation of the DeWitt-Smith-Jobe Camp 1637 in Bartlett, TN. Initially established in the 1990's the Jobe Camp was extremely active in heritage issues and frequently staged rallies and letter campaigns. Thanks to Cdr Perry Short for bringing this camp back to the firing line.

The NB Forrest Camp and the Forrest Family continue to do battle with the City of Memphis over the removals of our Confederate monuments, including the Forrest Monument/headstone. One lawsuit has been heard but there has been no ruling issued yet, and for the other two no court dates have been set yet.

Our Lee-Jackson-Chalmers Banquet was very successful again this year with 90 members and spouses attending. Of special mention was the attendance of Kevin Bradley, G-G-grandson of General N. B. Forrest, and Mrs. Brenda McDonald, president of the Tenn Div UDC, and several other officers. Virginia Flaggers president Susan Frise Hathaway was our excellent featured speaker, along with entertainment by the 52nd Regimental String Band, and concluding with our very moving candlelight remembrance. We are saddened by the passing of 6 brigade members this year. In a special ceremony we presented Forrest Camp commander Alan Doyle with his SCV 50-year membership pin. Congratulations Alan for these decades of loyal service to the SCV. UDC Tenn Div president Brenda McDonald was presented the prestigious Forrest Silver Pin for her work leading the UDC is preserving our state heritage.

The Lee Camp and the Chalmers Camp will again sponsor the annual Mid-South Military History and Civil War Show on March 30-31 at the Shelby County Agricenter. Scores of vendor tables of relics, books, paintings, reenacting gear, ladies dresses, weapons, WWII vehicles, and more. Admission is $10, or free for military.

McLemore Brigade Report

Greetings from the McLemore Brigade.

The camps of the Brigade are in winter quarters as I write this report. However that certainly does not mean they are inactive. Camps are making plans for the many events in the upcoming months.

The Joseph E. Johnston camp is currently working toward an

Thomas Cartwright speaking at the Lee Jackson banquet

Easter Sunrise Service at Confederate Circle in Mount Olivet Cemetery. I would like to encourage everyone to come and join the Joe Johnston camp for this event.. More details will be forthcoming as the date approaches. The Commander and Chief has declared March 2nd, Confederate Flag Day. Camps in the Brigade have been working on various activities in their areas. Murfreesboro Camp 33 will be meeting at their monument at the courthouse that day, then proceeding to the Nathan Bedford Forrest Boyhood Home. There will be a flag rally at the home at 2pm on that day. Everyone is certainly invited to join in to help us honor and celebrate Confederate Flag Day. The Bate Camp in Gallatin has planned and announced a wonderful confederate memorial day service on June 2nd at the City's Confederate Circle in the cemetery. Their speaker will be former CIC Thomas Strain. This should be an outstanding event. Murfreesboro Camp 33 also will be changing out the flag at Evergreen Cemetery on the same day and honoring the memory of the soldiers buried there.

On the subject of Confederate Memorial Day, the Hatton Camp in Lebanon is working on a new event. They are working on finalizing having their camp meeting on the Square near the General Hatton Monument and having an open public meeting there. To honor, celebrate and educate the public about our rich Confederate history, I commend this camp for thinking outside the box.

The men of the McGavock Camp are excited for this year's Memorial Day. After a long hard fight, the flags will be returning to the graves of those soldiers at the Hermitage . I congratulate this camp on their persistence in this hard struggle.

Sam Davis Camp in Brentwood continues its hard work on Winstead Hill. They have been working on a retaining wall to help support the ground around the new Florida Monument. They are also looking at plans for placement of future monuments on Winstead Hill. There is a possibility that in the future there could be five more states adding monuments to Winstead Hill.

The Nathaniel Cheares Camp held its Lee-Jackson Banquet. This was held at the Atheneum in Columbia and Thomas Cartwright was the speaker. This was the third year for their event which is growing in popularity every year.

In closing I would like to say that all camps in the upcoming year will be focusing on recruitment and changing passive supporters into active supporters.

Tom Meadows McLemore Brigade Commander

Jeffrey Forrest Brigade Report

January 31, 2019

Greetings Compatriots of the Tennessee Division. I hope this letter finds that each of you are doing well. The brigade is continuing to honor the Charge that was given to the Sons in 1906. Below, I will highlight a few things the camps in our brigade have done.

The largest project that has been completed is in Union City. Camp 176 has spearheaded the restoration project of the Unknown Confederate Soldiers Monument. This monument is one of the first erected after the War. It was completed in 1869. Thanks to all who have donated and assisted with this project. A rededication is planned in late 2019.

The Col. R.M. Russell Camp 209 in Humboldt has replaced the "Confederate Garden" sign with a new one. The original sign was placed in the late 1980's and was made of wood. The new sign is metal and has the SCV logo incorporated into the design. The camp is still in the process of cleaning up this garden in Rose Hill Cemetery.

The Jeffrey Forrest Brigade had a booth at the Gibson County Fair this past fall. The booth is always well received. This year we took home 2nd Place Premium. Thanks to all who helped man the booth. The Hill-Freeman Camp 1472 & the Col. R. M. Russell Camp 209 partnered together on the booth.

The brigade continues to maintain the mega flag site at Trimble. The Parks Cemetery Ridge Confederate Memorial Plaza draws many visitors from all over the South and the US. The Bell's Partisans Camp 1821 and the Otho F. Strahl Camp 176 assist with the site. Thanks to all who help make this a great memorial to our Confederate ancestors.

The brigade held it's annual Lee-Jackson Banquet in Trimble. The Bell's Partisans Camp 1821 hosted the event. The guest speaker for the evening was Joey Nolen, Lt. Commander of the Tennessee Division. We enjoyed his presentation plus it was great to see his family. There was great food, music, and fellowship. Great job to all who assisted! We are looking forward to next year.

It is a great honor to be able to serve as your Brigade Commander. Thank you to each of you for all you do to honor and remember our Confederate ancestors. If I can be of assistance to you, please feel free to contact me.

Respectfully,

John Blankenship, Commander, Col. Jeffrey Forrest Brigade

Living "The Charge" From Stephen D. Lee

Stephen D. Lee

In my readings recently I came upon "The Charge" that was given to the Sons of Confederate Veterans by General Stephen D. Lee, and began thinking more deeply about his statement. We are all familiar with the "Charge" as we have all heard it many times. We have all read it, said it, repeated it in meetings and events, and some of us may even be able to quote it from memory, but does it have an impact on our lives? To bring it into focus and to remind us once more, let me begin by quoting that famous statement which is the foundation of our organization. "To you Sons of Confederate Veterans, we submit the vindication of the cause for which we fought; to your strength will be given the defense of the Confederate soldier's good name, the guardianship of his history, the emulation of his virtues, the perpetuation of those principles he loved and which made him glorious and which you also cherish. Remember it is your duty to see that the true history of the South is presented to future generations."

We all accepted the premise of General S.D. Lee's statement when we became members of the Sons of Confederate Veterans. His request for us to vindicate the cause for which they fought charges us to prove them right or justified in their actions fighting against an invading army from the north. Another term he used in his statement was for us to perpetuate the principles of the Confederate soldier. This charges us to preserve, guard, continue, sustain and carry on those principles that our Confederate ancestors held dear and were willing to give the ultimate sacrifice to defend. We were given the strength to continue to defend our ancestor's good name and to follow in their steps in fighting against this immoral injustice. He finishes his Charge to us with the following; "Remember it is your duty to see that the true history of the South is presented to future generations."

This begs the question on how am I doing, and how are each of us doing in continuing to follow his Charge. We need to ask ourselves several questions, including; are we comfortable with our knowledge about our heritage to be able to discuss it with those that misunderstand and distort the true history? We have to ask ourselves, how involved are we with our organization in continuing the Charge? Are we showing our colors by proudly wearing our lapel pins and clothing reflecting we are Sons of Confederate Veterans outside of our meetings, or only when we are together and feel safe? Do we attend meetings regularly to support each other and draw strength from one another? Are we aware of the attacks on our heritage and standing up to fight this ignorance and distortion of the truth? Do we volunteer when asked to assist in, or attend an event?

Have we volunteered to hold an office, or are we willing to hold an office in the organization? If the answer to these questions is "no", or perhaps the involvement is not what it once was, perhaps it is time for a renewing of the spirit. Remember, there is strength in numbers and each one of us is important in this constant and continuous fight for our heritage. Many have served but many more are needed to fight the good and honorable fight.

Thomas H. Wood, Tennessee Division Adjutant
Robert H. Hatton Camp 723, Chaplain

Tom & Nancy Wood at a recent living history event.

LET THE CONQUERED BANNER WAVE

PLEA BY COL. JIM ANDERSON, COMMANDER G. A. R. POST

Why furl it and fold and put it away,
The banner that proudly waved over the gray?
It has not a blemish, it shows not a stain,
Though it waved over fields where thousands were slain
O, why should we furl it and put it away?
It's loved and respected by the blue and the gray.

They fought for a cause they thought was just,
And the banner they loved was trailed in the dust.
Their fight was lost and their hopes are dead,
And another flag waves proudly o'er their head;
But still in their memory, without boast or brag,
Wound around their hearts is this bonnie blue flag.

So unfurl that banner; don't lay it away.
There is but one country—it's both blue and gray—
Just one united land for us all,
Each willing and ready to answer the call;
But no land on earth, no history can say
That braver men lived than those of the gray.

Don't furl it and fold it and put it away.
Let our sons and daughters gaze on it and say:
"Twill live on forever in story and song.
Brave men fought for it; they may have been wrong;
But they fought for it gladly, heroes and brave,
And the bonnie blue flag waves over their grave."

So unfurl the old banner; let it float in the air;
Let all the old veterans salute it up there.
Though their cause it was lost, they were men tried and true,
And they loved their old banner so bonnie and blue.
Now here's to old Dixie, the land of the brave:
"All hail to the bonnie blue flag; let it wave!"

The above poem was read by Capt. C. J. Davis at the West Cemetery on National Decoration Day. The author was an officer in the Union army.

TENNESSEE DIVISION HERITAGE DEFENSE FUND

Compatriots,

The battle to preserve our Confederate Heritage has been a long and costly campaign. To continue to fight, and there will be more attacks, we much have the funds to forward the banner of our Confederate ancestors. Please consider donating to the Tennessee Division Heritage Defense fund. At the January DEC meeting it was voted to request from each member this able, donate at least $20 to go toward the important cause. Deo Vindice.

SONS OF CONFEDERATE VETERANS

Help Save General Forrest

The Memphis City Council, in the dark of night, removed the Forrest Equestrian Statue from Forrest Park and is threatening to dig up the graves of General Forrest and his wife MaryAnn from beneath the statue. The SCV and the Forrest family descendants must raise money to fight the city in this second attack on General Forrest. We need your help.

Help us save the graves and monument of General Forrest!
Will you or your camp donate $100, $500 or $1,000 to the defense?

Please sign me up as a supporter. No membership fee.
